

The Marks

Copyright 1999 Brad Eberly & Steve Hickock

C G/B
In his hands was the power of healing
Am G C/G
In His feet was the promise of Good News
F C2/E C/E
In His eyes was compassion for the needy
D/F# Gsus G
In His voice was authority endued
Am F C/E
In His side was the scar than proved His dying
D/F# Gsus G
On His brow, thorny insults and cruel lies
Am F C/E
On His back were the stripes that bought our healing
D/F# Gsus G
In His heart was the grief that brought new life

(Chorus)

C C2/E F Gsus G
These are the marks of the body of our Savior
C F Gsus G
These are the signs of His life poured out for us
C C2/E F C/E Dm
These are the things that prove His overflowing love for all mankind
Dm Gsus G C
These are the marks of the body of Christ

C G/B
In His touch there's release for every captive
Am G C/G
In His thoughts there's awareness of our need
F C2/E C/E
In His breath there is life for all the lifeless
D/F# Gsus G
In His steps there's assurance where He leads
Am F C/E
By His side there's embrace for all the lonely
D/F# Gsus G
In His grip there's security and peace
Am F C/E
In His arms there is strength for all the weary
D/F# Gsus G
In His reach there's enough for every need

(Bridge)

Do our hands display His power?
Do our feet provide Good News?
Do our eyes see with compassion?
Does our voice speak forth His truth?
If we're called as His disciples
And His name is what we wear
Then the marks of Jesus' body
Will be the marks that we bear

(Chorus)